

POPE JOHN PAUL II COLLEGE..

Fast the vehicles move across;
The men drive in good speed to their place,
Amidst the girls come here in mass
To do their study for a future to choose!

With colourful dress and a charming look
The little women enter into ambitioned track
With thought and dream like that of a brook;
They forget to eat but aim thus at this good luck !

What a lovely smile they show !
When they stamp at the entry by smooth toe;
Their ingenuous character makes them have no foe
Remaining intact with the aim of success, they go !

Here the professors are the noble ones
Whom our nation would extol once ;
Stored in mind the love for all and lessons
Like fine breeze their lecture download thence !
